

I do not think that the do not call policy should be weakened. I personally feel that the greatest aggravation in receiving these calls is the incredible rudeness of the individuals who will simply not take the words "I'm not interested" and end the call. These calls also often come during dinner hours or at times, 9:00 p.m. which is much too late. Thank you.